Reasons for Allowance/Examiner's Comment

Reasons for Allowance

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: none of the prior art either alone or in combination disclose or teach of the claimed combination of limitations to warrant a rejection under 35 USC 102 or 103. Specifically, in reference to independent claims 27, 28, 46 and 51, none of the prior art either alone or in combination disclose or teach of the claimed optical apparatus specifically including, as the distinguishing features in combination with the other limitations, any one of the first, second and third surfaces as a decentered aspherical surface, any one of the first, second and third surfaces as an anamorphic surface, and the satisfaction of the claimed mathematical condition. Specifically, in reference to independent claims 29, 30, 56, and 57, none of the prior art either alone or in combination disclose or teach of the claimed optical apparatus specifically including, as the distinguishing features in combination with the other limitations, the second surface of positive power facing the first surface, the third surface as a refracting surface closest to the device for displaying the image, at least two of the surfaces having a finite curvature radius, and the first surface is a reflecting surface having a convex surface directed toward the second surface.

Examiner's Comment
